Sturgeon Point Manor

Stately and elegant, this 7800 sf architect-designed home presides over 24 acres on the Hudson River, with a stunning 2500 sf indoor pool house with a river view. Built in 2002, it's named for its geographical location along the eastern banks of the river between Rhinecliff Landing and Vanderburgh Cove, within the prestigious Hudson River National Historic Landmark District. Inspired by the period designs of historic Hudson River estates, it features a winding drive leading to a porte-cochère, an impressive entry hall, and formal rooms with coffered ceilings and commanding views of the Hudson River and Catskill Mountains beyond. Modern luxuries abound...a gourmet kitchen with Viking wine cellar, 4 fireplaces, sumptuous baths, a steam room, and sophisticated dressing rooms. Tall pines, rolling lawns and manicured gardens complete this Hudson River dream.
